

COUNTY WORTH A HALF MILLION

Rush Has $515,140.78 on Deposit in Twelve Banks—Spring Taxes
Bulge Bank Book.

ARE BETTER THAN EXPECTED

Sum Greater Than Last Spring Installment and Per Cent of Collection Almost as Great.

Rush county is worth more than a half million dollars today. Perhaps in the strictest sense of the word, this might not be true. Because if Rush county had her debts paid, she would not have that much money. Anyway, there was on deposit today in Miss Rush County's name in twelve banks in Rush county the nice round sum of $515,140.78.

The deposit account of the county is heavier than usual at this time, of course, because the spring taxpaying season has just "drawn to a close." William M. McBride, county treasurer, has just closed up the books in the spring tax installment and today was prepared to give out the total collected for four months.

From the first day of January, this year, until last Monday, which was the last day for paying spring taxes, there was $248,211.78 paid in taxes into the county treasurer's office. The delinquent tax collection for the same period amounted to $1,605.74.

Although the county treasurer has estimated for the last few weeks that this spring's installment would fall short of last spring's it was $1,346.76 greater. The amount collected last year was $246,865.02. This year's delinquent taxes amounted to $386.85 more than that paid during the same period last year.

All things taken into consideration, however, it is not thought by the county treasurer that as great a per cent of the tax was collected this year as last during the spring period. When the increased valuation of the property and the slightly increased rate is considered. Treasurer McBride believes that the amount of taxes collected was not quite as great in proportion.

With the collections made on the 1912 spring installment as a basis, the county treasurer had estimated that at least $250,000 should be collected this year due to the reasons advanced above.

The total was a big surprise to the treasurer. He had grave fears that the collections would fall several thousand dollars short of the goal he had set. Many things conspired to hinder the work, the worst of which was the flood. This disaster not only kept people from coming to the city for some time, but it also caused such heavy losses in many instances that the people suffering were short of funds.

The remarkable spurt the collections made the last few days of the taxpaying period is responsible for the good showing. Last week a few days before the close of the period, the county treasurer estimated that it would be impossible to collect the sum needed to make the $250,000.

Last Monday's collections totaled $29,934.84, which was far in excess of any one day's collections. On the previous Saturday the collections amounted to $9,488.02. The county treasurer received $17,554.94 by mail on the last day, which is more than double the amount ever received by mail on the last day.

Not many people are familiar with the method used in dividing the county's deposits among the banks. The county board of finance meets and awards the funds to the banks bidding for the deposit according to

HAS A BROKEN SHOULDER

J. S. Byer More Seriously Hurt Than
First Thought.

J. S. Byer of Newcastle, who was driving the runabout that went in the ditch near Raleigh yesterday, is an insurance agent and was formerly L. E. & W. agent at Newcastle. His companion, J. W. Maxim, is a director of the First National bank of Newcastle. A dispatch from Newcastle today says that Mr. Byer sustained a broken shoulder in addition to the slight bruises and scalp wound that it was announced yesterday he had suffered. A hasty examination at Raleigh did not indicate that he had any broken bones. Mr. Maxim was very slightly injured.

LARGE CROWD GOES TO STATE CONTEST

Forty-five Supporters of Weldon
Brann Leave for Lebanon in Special Traction Car.

EXPECT TO WIN FIRST PLACE

A crowd of forty-five high school students left for Lebanon this morning in a special car over the I. & C. for the state high school oratorical contest and if the enthusiasm displayed can be counted for anything Rushville should get first place. The Rushville delegation had great confidence in Weldon Brann, the local contestant, and a great showing will be made. The crowd from here was expected to be as large as that of any other school represented in the contest. Weldon Brann will speak on "Affairs in Cuba" and judging from his performance in the preliminary contest held some weeks ago, he stands a good chance of winning. Local rooters claim he will finish inside the money if he does not win first place.

This afternoon the track meet was held among the schools in the association and James Shanahan and Earl Roam represented the local school. They were entered in 440 and 880 yard dashes.

BEN H. CONWAY IS CALLED BY DEATH

Well Known Young Man Expires Following Four Weeks' Illness From Uraemic Poisoning.

LATE FLETCHER CONWAY'S SON

Ben H. Conway, 24 years old, a well known young man, died this morning at one-fifteen o'clock at his home in West Fourth street, after a four weeks' illness from uraemic poisoning. He was taken ill about four weeks ago but his condition was not considered serious until the last week. The family expected death, but his friends here were shocked. Ben Conway was a well liked young man and had numerous friends. He was a son of the late Fletcher Conway.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ed Bowen, and five brothers, Earl, Ross, Herbert, John and Robert, and one sister, Miss Laverne Conway. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the late residence and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

OBSERVANCE TO BE GENERAL

Church Services Sunday Will be Appropriate to the Sentiment of Mother's Day.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS PLANNED

Departure at Christian Church With Combination of Church and Bible School Services.

Mother's day will be more generally celebrated here Sunday than ever before in the history of the special occasion. Every church in the city is making arrangements for elaborate observance, and the county churches, for the most part will take due recognition of the day.

Local florists are already rushed with orders for the day. Originally white carnations were the emblem of Mother's day, but in the last year or two, the drain has been so heavy on florists that they could not supply enough white carnations. The result has been that a sweet sentiment has changed the first rule:

"Bright flowers for mothers living;
White flowers for mothers' memory."

White carnations will be given to everyone who attends the Bible school at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, with the compliments of the Men's Bible class. Other services will be appropriate to the spirit of the day.

A special departure from the usual program is announced for the Main Street Christian church, where the morning church service and the Bible school will be combined into one service, beginning at ten o'clock. A special program has been arranged, with music and readings in keeping with the occasion. Every mother will receive a carnation.

"A Mother's Day Message" will be the topic of the Rev. W. H. Wylie's sermon at the Sunday evening service at the St. Paul M. E. church. Special music will be rendered by the large chorus choir under the direction of Miss Norma Smith.

The Rev. W. W. Lineberry, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at New Salem, is one of the pastors in the smaller towns in the county who has announced a special program for the day. In the morning, he will preach on the subject "Mother" and in the evening his topic will be "The Young Man and His Mother." Every member of the church is urged to wear a white carnation. Special music will be given.

The special program for the combined service at the Christian church follows:

FINED $50 ON EACH CHARGE

David Jackson of Knightstown Js
Also Given Jail Sentence of Thirty Days.

IS SUSPENDED BY THE COURT

Alleged "Blind Tiger" Operator First
Asks Change of Judge—Later
Pleads Guilty.

David Jackson, a former Knightstown saloon keeper, who was arrested two weeks ago on the charge of running a blind tiger and violating the liquor laws and after a raid by Sheriff Kirk and Deputy Sheriff Yost on his home in Knightstown, was found guilty of the two charges against him yesterday in the Henry circuit court, says the Newcastle Star. He was fined $50 and costs in each case and was also sentenced to serve thirty days in jail for each offense. The jail sentence was suspended pending good behavior.

Jackson's attorneys appeared in court earlier in the day and filed a motion for a change of venue from Judge Jackson. The motion was sustained and Attorney Fred C. Gause was selected to try the cases. Later Jackson decided to submit his case to the court without defense or plea and the findings of guilty were returned.

The convicted man was unable to pay the fine and went back to jail. He owns property in Knightstown and expects to secure sufficient funds today to secure his release. The total of the fines and costs is about $150.

When the raid was made on Jackson's place in Knightstown the sheriff confiscated a barrel of bottled beer. At the hearing yesterday Special Judge Gause ordered Sheriff Kirk to destroy the beer and it will probably be dumped in the sewer today.

BRINGS THE THIRD SUIT AGAINST I. & C.

Cora B. Hardwick, Who Lost Action
Last Saturday, Files Another in Marion County Court.

WANTS $10,000 AS BEFORE

Cora B. Hardwick, widow of the late John Hardwick and administratrix of his estate, filed the third suit against the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company yesterday, asking ten thousand dollars damages on account of the death of her husband, who was hit by an I. & C. car, as she has done in the other two cases. Hardwick was killed the night of November 27, 1911, at stop 33, a short distance east of here, while standing on the track attempting to flag what he thought was an I. & C. passenger, but was in reality a work train.

Mrs. Hardwick first filed suit in the circuit court and later withdrew the suit. She then brought a similar action in an Indianapolis superior court. It was heard last Saturday. After all of the evidences had been heard, the court sustained the motion of the I. & C. to find for the company because the deceased had been negligent in standing on the track while attempting to signal a car to stop. The third suit was brought in Marion superior court, room 5.

JURY TAKES LOOK AT ROAD

Visits James Forbes Highway in Ripley Township.

The argument in the Forbes case, which has occupied the attention of the circuit court since Tuesday will take place tomorrow morning. The evidence in the case was all submitted this afternoon and the jury was taken to Ripley township to view the road. This afternoon in the absence of the jury attorneys argued before Judge Megee on certain instructions asked by the plaintiff. The plaintiff asked for specific instructions and the defendant objected. The case has been a long drawn out affair and is based on the allegations that Wilk and company did not build the road according to the plans, specifications and profile.

INJURY CAUSES A LIFE OF ILL HEALTH

Accident in Childhood Ultimately Brings About Death of Mrs.
George B. Moore.

FELL FROM A HORSE'S BACK

An injury sustained in her childhood while she was riding horseback behind her brother caused Mrs. George B. Moore, 835 North Jackson street, then Miss Lillie Foster, a life of ill health and ultimately brought about her death, which occurred today about noon. When Mrs. Moore fell from the horse she was badly injured. It was feared a tumor was caused by the accident. She had an operation eight years ago, but was not relieved.

Mrs. Moore was prepared for the end. She made all of her own funeral arrangements down to the minutest detail. She was a faithful worker in the United Presbyterian church. Mrs. Moore was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, and was born south of the city. She was in here fifty-second year.

One child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Moore, but it died early in life. Besides her husband, Mrs. Moore is survived by a half-sister and three brothers, who are John Foster of Washington, Ill., Barnett Foster of Indianapolis, and Thomas Foster of near Greenfield. The funeral services could not be definitely announced this afternoon because the pastor had not been selected. The Rev. A. W. Jamieson is out of the city.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES

Grand United Order of Odd Fellows
Will Celebrate.

Rushville lodge No. 2812, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows will hold their annual Thanksgiving services Sunday afternoon at the Second Baptist church. The principal speaker of the day will be the Rev. W. L. Sleet of Liberty, Ind. The members of the lodge will form in line at the lodge room in West Second street and march to the church at one o'clock. An effort is being made to obtain a band and a large turn out is expected. Prof. Brown is marshal of the day.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE.

Decatur Herald: The Democrats are going to follow the Republicans to the extent of keeping the country closed to cheap Asiatic labor, but they are going to open the door to the products of cheap Asiatic labor. That is the difference between Republicans and Democrats in the tariff.

COCAINE LAW IS IN EFFECT HERE

Local Druggists Note Small Difference in Sale of Habit-Forming Drugs Since Proclamation.

INDISCRIMINATE SALE ENDS

Pharmacists Can Sell Such Drugs
Now Only Upon Written Prescription.

Since the new "anti-dope" law went into effect simultaneously with the recent proclamation of the governor, Rushville druggists have been conforming with its decrees rigidly. The act's purpose is to stop the indiscriminate sale of morphine and of cocaine and bring it under the direction of the state board of pharmacy.

Local druggists say that they have noted very little difference since the law took effect because there are few users of "dope" in a city of this size. The act is in reality an amendment to an act of 1911 so as to add opium, morphine, heroin and cannabis indica to the list of cocaine and alpha or beta eucaine (with the salts and derivatives thereof) to the list of articles which are forbidden to be generally sold.

Druggists are still permitted to sell them upon a written prescription, but the act provides that "it shall be unlawful for any duly registered physician, licensed veterinarian, or licensed dentist, to write, issue, deliver or dictate, either directly or indirectly, any prescription, to or for any habitual user of any drugs enumerated in this section." Copies of prescriptions on which said drugs have been sold "may be taken by the board of pharmacy, or their agents, and the originals are required to be open to the agents" of the state board. Such drugs may be lawfully sold at wholesale to licensed pharmacists, veterinarians, dentists and practicing physicians.

A proviso is added that the wholesaler, jobber or manufacturer shall label each package distinctly with the name and quantity of any such drug sold, and the word "poison," with the name and place of business of the seller, all printed in red ink and shall keep a record of the quantity and name and address of the purchaser, which book shall be always open for inspection by the state board of pharmacy, its agents, and the proper officers of the law, for a period of five years. Persons selling or dealing in such drugs are required to report each month to the secretary of the board of pharmacy all the sales made in the preceding thirty days, with the dates of such sales, the amount sold and the name of the purchaser.

Patent and proprietary medicines containing not more than two grains of opium or one-quarter of a grain of its alkaloidal salts to the ounce, or admixtures of ipecac and opium, commonly known as Dover's powders, liniments, suppositories, ointments and plasters, plainly labeled, "for external use only" are not covered by the act, and nothing in the act is to be construed to prevent the legitimate administering of drugs by registered practicing physicians and duly licensed pharmacists or dentists.

Section 2, prescribing penalties, provides that, for a first offense, the offender shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $500, and imprisoned in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and for each succeeding offense he shall be guilty of a felony and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned in the state prison or reformatory not less than one year nor more than eight

SENATE NOW HAS THE TARIFF BILL

Will Be Held In Committee
There Two Weeks.

TRIUMPH OF MR. UNDERWOOD

Revenue Measure Just Passed by the House and Which Bears the Name of the Alabama Leader, Brings Upon Its Author the Warm Congratulations Even of the Leaders of the Opposition.

Washington, May 9.—It is now up to the senate to complete the fulfillment of the Democratic tariff pledge, the Underwood bill having gone through the house last night.

For the first time in twenty years the Democratic party saw a general tariff measure go through the house of representatives with the certainty that in one form or another it will in a few months be the law of the land. As the house Democrats drove home the last spike in their labors at the session last night the ceremony was purely formal. The Underwood bill was passed in the house by a vote of 281 to 139. Only five Democrats strayed from the party fold when the issue finally was joined. Four Progressives, two Republicans and one independent formerly identified with the Republican party, voted with the Democrats.

Representatives Broussard, Dupre, Morgan and Lazaro of Louisiana, and Smith of New York, Democrats, registered their protests against the proposed tariff revision by voting in the negative. Representatives Kelly and Ripley of Pennsylvania, Nolan of California and Bryan of Washington were the Progressives who sided with the main body of the Democrats. Representatives Carey and Stafford of Wisconsin, Republicans, likewise joined the Democrats in support of the Underwood bill. Representative Kent of California was the "Independent" who approved the proposed Democratic revision by voting for it. Representative Copley of Illinois, until this session a Republican, now identified with the Progressive party, answered "present" when his name was called.

Just before the bill was passed Mr. Underwood served notice that if any manufacturer in the United States attempted for political reasons to discredit the new tariff, the administration had agencies within its power to deal out punishment to such manufacturer by publicity of all the facts. Mr. Underwood was referring to the law passed a year ago creating the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. This is the law which Secretary Redfield already has seized upon in ordering his investigation into the pottery industry, which has been threatening to cut wages if the Underwood rates prevail.

The action of the house marked a triumph for Oscar W. Underwood. Among leaders of all parties there is commendation for the superb manner in which Underwood has handled the tariff bill. Ample time was given to all Democrats for debate in caucus and in the house, and only a mild curb was placed upon the vocal abilities of the Republicans and the Bull Moose. Mr. Underwood was warmly congratulated for his forebearance by Republican Leader Mann and Mr. Murdock, the Bull Moose leader, expressed his appreciation of the courtesy extended him.

The bill just passed embodies a competitive tariff, according to its author. It proposes to place American producers on an equality with foreign producers, and Democrats insist that in the competition that will ensue Americans will hold their own, but that they will have to be content with smaller profits.

For President Wilson also the action of the house marked a distinct triumph, as, to a large extent, the bill may be regarded as a child of Mr. Wilson's own hand.

The tariff bill was transmitted to the senate today and was at once referred to the committee on finance, of which Senator Simmons of North Carolina, is chairman.

Present indications are that the bill will remain in committee at least two weeks and possibly longer.

SAYS MALFORMATION OF NOSE CAUSES HEADACHES.

Paris Physician Makes Known a New Theory of Cure.

Persons who suffer from forms of headache often regarded as incurable will be interested in the announcement that a French physician has found a method of curing many such cases. The discoverer, the eminent Dr. Guisez of Paris, recently explained his theory and methods to the French Academy of Medicine.

Dr. Guisez finds that the frequent and annoying variety of migraine, which starts from above the eyes and spreads, often accompanied by nausea and vomiting, is really due to a malformation of the upper part of the nose known as hypertrophy of the middle horn, which under the least provocation causes congestion and a disturbance of circulation at the base of the brain.

Up to the present, owing to this cause being overlooked, all medical treatment, even the cutting of the nerves, has failed.

Dr. Guisez, however, by a slight operation, the details of which he gave to the academy, has found an easy remedy by which he has cured over seventy cases already. He recommends all persons suffering from frequent headaches to have a thorough examination made of the interior of the nose.

This communication is considered by the academy to be of great importance.

WOMAN IS A TENOR SINGER.

Miss Ruby Helder, "a Female Caruso," Visits America.

Miss Ruby Helder, an English girl who has a remarkable tenor voice, recently visited America. She made the trip solely to sing one group of songs at a reception given by Mrs. August Belmont in New York, and it is said that she received $10,000 for the musical.

Miss Helder has frequently been heard in London during the last few months, and her voice is pronounced remarkable by critics, some of whom describe her as "a female Caruso." Her range goes up to high C.

Sir Joseph Santley, Miss Helder's teacher, says hers is the first voice of the kind he has heard in forty years. He predicts a great career for her.

Miss Helder is so small and frail that the masculine quality of her voice astonishes all who hear it for the first time. Specialists say it is due to the peculiar formation of the muscles in her throat. The girl began singing tenor when she was yet in short dresses at school. She first attracted public attention by singing in a London church choir.

NEW FREAKS OF FASHION.

Porcelain Heels and Pearls as Chin Straps Are the Latest.

From Paris, the source of nearly all fashions, wise and otherwise, comes the news that porcelain heels for silk or satin evening shoes are among the eccentricities to be expected before long. They will be made of seves ware.

Another novel and none too lovely fashion is the wearing of strings of pearls somewhat after the manner of the guardsman's chin strap. The necklace passes under the chin of the wearer from ear to ear. It is sometimes fastened around the ear, but more frequently secured to the hair by a jeweled pin on either side.

Steel ornaments and brooches have been revived.

Summer gowns will be made chiefly of moire damask and broches de laine.

RHEUMATISM PAINS GO Swollen Joints VANISH

RHEUMA Acts on Kidneys, Liver and Blood the First Day—and Out Goes Uric Acid Poison.

Anybody can afford to pay 50 cents to get rid of terrible Rheumatism, Sciatica or Gout, and that's all RHEUMA costs at Johnson's Drug Store and they say if it doesn't do all that is claimed for it, money back.

It's wonderful how speedily this simple remedy takes hold and how the sore muscles limber up and the swollen joints come down to normal. Make no mistake—RHEUMA costs but little, but it's the best remedy you can find to drive Rheumatic poison from the system and bring back health to misery-racked bodies.

"I had Rheumatism for a long while, and tried many medicines, but was not cured until I used RHEUMA. I cannot praise RHEUMA too highly. My advice to those suffering from Rheumatism is to use this great remedy, as I believe it will effect a permanent cure in any case."—C. B. Lanham, Sattes, W. Va., April 27, 1912.

No woman wants to look old and ugly. You don't have to. Hard work is what puts tired lines in your face, bends your back and spoils your figure. If you could find a way to ease up you'd be glad, wouldn't you? There is a way; a cool-water, no-hard-rubbing way; it's a good way, and it's cheap. It's the Fels-Naptha way, and it's very simple.

All you need to do is to buy a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap. Your cure begins right away, if you follow directions.

HE BARS PRETTY TEACHERS.

They Attract Too Much Attention, Says Superintendent.

C. O. Williams, superintendent of the public schools at Richmond, Ind., believes school boards in selecting young women for their teaching corps should strike a medium between the very pretty and the very homely ones.

"Don't hire teachers who are extremely pretty or who are extremely homely," he told the township trustees recently. "Real pretty girls attract too much attention, and so do ugly ones. A teacher's appearance should be such as not to draw attention to her; therefore the beautiful women should be avoided."

SUFFRAGETTES ARE SUED.

Windows Broken In Recent Raids Made Basis of Claims.

A charge of conspiracy recently was brought against Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Petrick Lawrence, English suffrage agitators, by ninety-three London shopkeepers whose windows were broken in the suffrage raids a few weeks ago. The claims entered amounted to almost $20,000.

Originally but two firms were cited as plaintiffs. Eventually, however, nearly all the prominent traders in the west end of London decided to combine in an effort to fix the responsibility for the destruction of their property.

BREAK WITH MEXICO CONSIDERED LIKELY

Mr. Wilson Said to Be Due to Receive His Passports.

Mexico City, May 9.—The American ambassador to Mexico, Henry Lane Wilson, has practically received his passports. President Huerta, in an extra official conversation with Mr. Wilson, declared that affairs had reached a point where Mexico could no longer be able to treat in a diplomatic manner with the United States unless his government is officially recognized. This news has leaked out in certain circles and many believe that Mr. Wilson either will receive his passports or be recalled, in view of his government's continued refusal to recognize the Huerta administration. Everybody seems to consider that the situation between the two countries is very much strained and the Americans here, while very much worried, justify the procedure of Huerta for reasons which are already known. Provisional President Huerta expressed the highest personal regard for Mr. Wilson.

AID IS LIMITED UNDER NEW LAW

Further Interpretation of Vocational Education Statute.

GETTING STARTED BY DEGREES

Attorney General Points Out That Under a Broad Interpretation of New Vocational Education Law No More Than Thirty Counties Can Receive State Aid in the Fiscal Year Beginning the First of August Next.

Indianapolis, May 9.—Thomas M. Honan, attorney general, has given an opinion to G. I. Christie of Purdue university, in which he interpreted certain provisions of the new vocational education law. He said, in effect, that under a broad interpretation of the law, no more than thirty counties can legally receive state aid for vocational schools before Sept. 30 next. He based his opinion on the wording of the law, which prevents state aid going to any more than thirty counties during the year between Sept. 30, 1913, and Sept. 30, 1914. Mr. Christie had asked how many counties which had appointed county agents under the new law, could receive state aid before the end of the present fiscal year. The attorney general also said that if a county appointed a county agent about June 1, he might draw, approximately, one-third of his annual salary, not to exceed one-third of $1,000, between June 1 and Sept. 30.

Attorney General Honan also gave an opinion to Amos W. Butler, secretary of the newly created state board of truancy, in which he said that the state board of truancy may prescribe a form of certificate for the executive school officer to use in certifying aid given to a needy school child by virtue of an act of the general assembly, to the township trustee.

UNIQUE STRIKE OF PITTSBURGH'S

Scenes Unprecedented in America Attended Demonstration Against Superintendent.

SCENES without a precedent in any American city attended the strike of Pittsburgh school children to force the removal of S. L. Heeter as superintendent.

The troubles back of the unusual strike extended over several months. In the first place, in his tenure of little more than a year Superintendent Heeter made changes in the schools and thereby incurred the disapproval of many of the teachers. So indignant were members of the teaching corps that they attended mass meetings and protested against his retention in office.

The cause immediately back of the strike was charges made against Heeter by two young women, one of whom was a nurse employed in his household, and the failure of the school board to take what the public considered proper cognizance of the charges. There was a demand for Heeter's removal, but the board retained him.

Pupils in practically every school in what is known as Greater Pittsburgh went on strike at the beginning of the general demonstration. Greater Pittsburgh includes what formerly were Allegheny and several districts not originally a part of the incorporated city of Pittsburgh.

Many of the children were urged by their parents to stay away from school, the parents feeling that Heeter was unfit to remain at the head of the schools.

Hanged In Effigy.

Heeter was hanged in effigy, and many street parades of school children were held all over the city. Thousands of children marched through the streets downtown, on the north side, in Lawrenceville, Bellefield and Bloomfield, and calls for police were frequent.

Signs bearing the words, "Heeter Must Go," "Kick Heeter Out," "We Want a Clean Man at the Head of Us" and even more inflammatory lines were carried by the marchers. Cow bells and noisemaking instruments of all kinds were carried. Many more effigies of Heeter were burned.

A squad of policemen went to the Fulton building and dispersed a crowd of about 500 men and women waiting to get a view of Superintendent Heeter one afternoon. After the police had forced the crowd to move away Heeter left the building for lunch.

The first arrest of striking school children took place in front of the public safety building when patrolmen locked three children in a cell, charged with violating a city order. The arrests were made on orders issued by the assistant superintendent of police, who announced that all children who refused to disperse would be placed under arrest. The three prisoners were at the head of a parade.

Later in the same day seven boys were arrested in Larimer avenue. They were at the head of a parade of about 400 children, of whom half were girls. They were lodged in a police station.

On one occasion 4,000 children marched in the downtown north side streets. Traffic was blocked, and police captains called the policemen in that vicinity into the police stations to be held there in reserve for an emergency.

Many women standing on the street corners urged the children to remain away from class. The children made a demonstration outside the schools. Their shouts drowned the teachers' voices in their efforts to conduct classes.

A General Strike.

The strike became general the second day. In some of the schools more than half of the pupils remained away from their classes, and in other schools the attendance suffered greatly.

Reserves were called from various patrol stations to the schools where the actions of the pupils threatened to become riotous. On the south side mothers stood on the street corners and urged their offspring to strike and cheered other children as they made demonstrations against Heeter.

About thirty boys of the upper grades refused to go back to the Forbes school at Forbes and Stevenson streets. The boys carried signs of all descriptions, among them being "Down With Heeter," "We Do Not Want Heeter," "Heeter Must Go" and "Strike, Children, Strike While the Iron Is Hot."

The boys flouted the signs into the faces of all the children entering the school and told them not to go back.

Two hundred boys and girls from Tenth ward school No. 1, East street, north side, marched from their school over the streets of the north side and through the downtown thoroughfares, carrying banners and singing their slogans.

Some of the boys carried a banner six feet square, on which was painted: "Kick Heeter Out! Come Along!" While marching through the streets the children sang:

Stand him on his head,
Stand him on his feet;
Heeter, Heeter, must be beat.

March to Office.

The boys and girls from the Tenth ward school marched over to the Fulton building, in which are the offices of Superintendent Heeter. Several of the boys attempted to break into the Fulton building, but were stopped by the employees of the building and two patrolmen.

PUPILS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Two mounted policemen appeared on the scene and ordered the marchers to move away.

At least 40,000 pupils remained away from school the third day of the strike. In many instances parents served notice on the teachers that they had no intention of returning their children to the school while Heeter was allowed to remain at the head of the local school system.

The board of education played its trump card when it caused notices to be served on the parents of all children who have remained away from the school sessions, informing them that prosecutions under the truancy law would be started unless all pupils able to attend returned to their respective schools. Little heed, however, was paid to the admonition.

Bishop Regis Canavin of the Roman Catholic diocese of Pittsburgh, who was named as one of the committee to conduct the investigation into the charges against Heeter, refused to accept the appointment. No reason was given by Bishop Canavin for his declination to act as one of the committee.

Mass meetings were held in several parts of the city to take action toward forcing the board of education to heed public opinion and rid the school system of Superintendent Heeter. Speakers at the different meetings attacked both Heeter and the board of education.

Riot at School.

A small sized riot occurred at the Letach school, on Bedford avenue, one morning when the session opened. A gang of "strikers" gathered in front of the school and called all those who entered "scabs." Finding their taunts had no effect, the "strikers" began pelting the other pupils with stones. One large rock struck Harold Hornmaker, a lad of fourteen years, on the head, causing a serious wound. A call was sent in for the police, but by the time they arrived the "strikers" had fled.

The threat of the school board to send truant officers after all pupils who did not return to their classes was met with derision by the older pupils in the high schools. The pupils retorted that they would remain away from school until Heeter was thrown out of office.

It developed that in several schools the teachers not only failed to maintain discipline, but abetted the strike and marched with the children.

In the crowds that attended the mass meetings in various parts of the city were many teachers and school visitors. In several instances the school visitors presided over and addressed the meetings.

Several verbal attacks were made on the school board because of its proposal that the charges against Superintendent Heeter be investigated by a special committee of citizens. The speakers declared the appointment of such a committee was unnecessary and censured the board for what they called its attempt to shift an unsavory problem to the public.

Fire Creates a Stir.

Considerable excitement was created one morning in the vicinity of north Morningside school, not far from Superintendent Heeter's home, on north Negley avenue, when fire was discovered in the building. It was instantly declared that a few of the more rabid juvenile strikers had adopted the methods of the London militant suffragettes.

It was soon learned, however, that the fire was the result of an explosion of a tinner's gasoline heater on the roof and that the damage was slight. The tinner, John Baus, was burned about the face and hands. He was rescued from his perilous position by firemen.

So many and so numerous were the minor outbreaks arising from the general disturbance that the police could not keep track of them all. Hardly an hour passed without the report of some disturbance due to the strike.

The press of Pittsburgh gave columns of space to the unusual strike, some of the most powerful papers siding with the strikers and their parents.

The attention of the whole country was attracted to the unique situation. The spectacle of the school board resisting the demands of citizens, of policemen guarding the superintendent's home by night, of children of all ages marching through the streets like so many revolutionists and of mass meetings being called to demand Heeter's removal was so unusual that its full significance could hardly be felt outside the immediate zone of action.

Various industrial organizations have from time to time threatened to call their children from the schools on strike to win a point in an economic struggle, and classes in many schools and colleges have "gone on strike" because they thought certain discipline should not be enforced.

The strike at Pittsburgh, however, was the first demonstration of its kind and magnitude ever seen in the United States, and the point at issue also was unusual.

A Law Evasion.

Dr. Friedmann's course since he landed on our shores, has been one of constant evasion. His claims for his treatment rest solely on his own statements. He has not qualified as a physician in New York or Rhode Island. He has failed to answer the letters of the officers of the Public Health Service. He has persistently refused to furnish any proof of the claims made for his preparation. Now comes the most startling development of all. According to newspaper reports, branch "institutes" are to be established in every state by a syndicate formed by Dr. Friedmann and his promoters. Each institute will make its own serum or culture, or whatever Dr. Friedmann's remedy is. Thus by a technicality he will evade the federal law which, for the purpose of protecting the public against impure and dangerous serums and vaccines, places all these preparations which are subject to interstate commerce under the control of the Public Health Service. State laws are slow of enactment and slower of enforcement. This plan will sweep aside the strong arm of the Public Health Service, which otherwise would protect the unfortunate consumptives. It will allow the promoter to make and sell to the victims of disease, at any profit he sees fit, a secret product, the value of which rests entirely on Friedmann's unsupported statements. Suppose an American physician went to Berlin with unproved claims for some new treatment of consumption. Suppose he refused to produce proof of his statements, refused to submit his remedy of other scientific men, attempted to evade the German laws, disregarded German officials and finally, through a legal technicality, planned to bleed the German consumptive of his scanty means by selling him a preparation of unproved value and possible danger? Would the German people permit their sick to be the victims of such a scheme? The Journal of the American Medical Association asks: Why did Friedmann come to the United States? Because, says the Journal, we have, in Europe the reputation of being very "easy." Because this country is supposed to be the home of the get-rich-quick promoter. The American people have no respect for the man who uses legal technicalities for profit or to escape punishment. Will the American public and the American press tolerate this attempt to make our unfortunate consumptives a source of gain for a rapacious foreigner, promoting a remedy of unproved merit in violation of the spirit of our laws?

Spring Fever.

Some people give that name to the enervating languor brought on by the first warm weather. Others apply it to the restless dreams of winding country roads and grassy trout streams that tempt a man to shut his desk with a bang and skip.

Spring is the hardest weather in the year for a fellow to work. The office or factory seems a friendly enough shelter during chill storms of winter. In May the whole system of the world's work seems a crime. Dusty Rhodes looks like the only true philosopher.

The confinement within four walls on these lovely days may be abnormal and different from the life man was built to lead. But the persistence with which people stick to their tasks, deaf to all these calls of vagrant nature, shows that the human spirit has acquired some splendid habits of persistent industry and patient regularity. These habits and qualities in the long run bring ample rewards.

There will be continued unrest among the college undergraduates until proficiency at base ball is given the credit marks it should have on examination papers.

At last accounts the windows of the Hague peace palace were all boarded up but the caretaker goes in once a year to see that no one steals the furniture.

Helen Gould Shepard has returned with her husband from their wedding trip, and only 12,376 people asked her for a million dollars the day she got back.

The Chinese republic has now been recognized, but it may take a long time yet to get into Society.

HOPE INDICATIONS ARE NOT AMISS

Farmers Want Heavy Rain Because Fields Are Drying up, Making Corn Planting Difficult.

THE WHEAT CROP IS ONLY FAIR

Many farmers were hoping today that the weather indications were not amiss. In other words they desired that the rain would fall steadily for several hours. The earth needs a lot of moisture just now, they say, so that they can proceed with the spring work. Some ground which was broken a few weeks ago is so hard that it can not be put in condition so that corn can be planted in it. Some farmers who have planted some corn already have stopped until it rains and the ground is softened.

There are a number of farmers who rely on the old belief that a dry May is necessary for a good wheat crop, but some declare that the rule does not apply in this case because April was very dry. Most of the wheat is said to be only in fair condition.

Farmers say that the cut worms have been working on the corn. Cool dry weather is said to be ideal for them. With rain and a hot sun, they are unable to do any damage.

Dedicates Verses To Appendicitis

While a convalescent at the Sexton sanitarium following an operation for appendicitis recently, Mrs. William H. Wylie, wife of the pastor of the St. Paul M. E. church, heard the whisperings of the muse and inscribed the following verse to that which caused her suffering:

Who comes lurking 'round the door?
Appendicitis!

And who has been there off before?
Appendicitis!

Bringing aches and pains galore,
Bringing troubles by the score,
We'll give him welcome here no more;
Oh! naughty appendicitis!

Who comes and sits beside the bed?
Dr. Van Osdol!

Who looks so grave, and shakes his head?
Dr. Van Osdol!

"I think it's time to operate;
Go, call your surgeon; make your date;

And get her there ere 'tis too late."
Oh! horrid Dr. Van Osdol!

Comes, sits beside another another knave(?)
Dr. Hackleman!

Looks just as solemn, and as grave,
Dr. Hackleman!

For us he's cured so many ills,
Has healed our throats, and given pills,
And never sends us any bills;

Oh! horrid, horrid Doctor!

Who does the etherizing trick?
Dr. Wooden.

And makes your body like a stick?
Dr. Wooden.

Your soul goes floating up and thru Elysian fields and skies of blue;
You wish that you'd not 'come to.'

Oh! dear old Dr. Wooden!

Who comes with knife and dextrous skill?
Dr. Sexton.

You feel so sure he will not kill,
Dr. Sexton.

He cuts the offending member out,
Before you know what he's about;
And then you feel that you could shout!

Oh! dear old Dr. Sexton!

Who comes with hands so strong and firm?
The nurses.

Who ease your bed, relieve your pain?
The nurses.

With gentle tread, and swiftest feet
They hasten, every want to meet,
And always have a smile to greet;

Oh! dear and kind old nurses!

Who send you flowers and messages dear?
Your friends.

That fill your eyes with many a tear?
Your friends.

God bless you all, and keep you too;
Doctors, nurses, and kind friends true!

This is my prayer for each of you,
Oh! dear, kind old friends!

Webster's Compliment.

While it is well known that Daniel Webster in speaking of General Taylor's candidacy for the office of president pronounced it "a nomination not fit to be made," he never failed to do justice to the general's military abilities and eminent service in the field. On one occasion he paid the old soldier a delicate and well deserved compliment. General Taylor was complaining of the crowds of people who daily besieged him soon after his accession to the presidency.

"They interfere," he said, "with my official engagements and violate my domestic retirement, but still I do not wish to turn my back upon my friends."

"You never did upon your enemies, general," Mr. Webster instantly replied.

their capital stock. The banks have to give a special bond to get a county deposit, which shall be equal to 50 per cent of the deposit if it is a surety bond and 60 per cent if it is a personal bond.

What the county treasurer estimates will be the maximum amount on hands at any one time is used as a basis for making the division. Under the present plan $450,000 is the basis, but the county has more money than that on deposit now. This is due to the fact, the treasurer says, that many road bonds have been sold and the money has not been paid out for construction because the season up until a few weeks ago had not been fit for road making.

This is the present schedule for awarding the funds: Rush County National bank, per cent, 23.4, maximum amount, $105,300; Rushville National, per cent 20.5, maximum amount, $92,250; Carthage bank, per cent 14.8, maximum amount, $66,600; Peoples National, 14.6 per cent, maximum amount, $65,700; Peoples Loan and Trust company, 7 per cent, $31,500 maximum amount; Farmers Trust company, 6.2 per cent, maximum amount, $27,900; Glenwood State, 3.3 per cent, $14,850 maximum amount; Mays First National, 3.3 per cent, $14,850 maximum amount; Manilla bank, 2.3 per cent, maximum amount, $10,400; Milroy bank, 1.8 per cent, $8,000 maximum; Arlington bank, 1.5 per cent, $6,800 maximum; Falmouth bank, 1.3 per cent, $5,850 maximum.

Society News

The Research Literary club of Anderson township met Tuesday at the country home of Mrs. Thomas Innis, north of Milroy. The club was delightfully entertained by its lecturer, Mrs. Jessica Brown of Indianapolis. This will be the last session of this society until September, as through the summer they have no meetings. The club was organized a year ago with 22 members, who have become so interested in the educational work that they look forward to each meeting with much joy. The lectures given by Mrs. Brown have been exceptionally fine and interesting.

The Palace will show a Broncho drama, "The Prospector's Daughter" for the first picture tonight. The other is a split-reel showing two comedies, "A Near Tragedy" and "Her Treacherous Brother."

The Princess will show the usual two pictures tonight. "The Photograph" and the "Blotter" is the title of the first, an Edison drama. "The College Chaperone" is a Selig comedy. Tomorrow night a Lubin drama, "The Supreme Sacrifice" will be shown.

FARMERS SHOULD BE INTERESTED

Corn Husker Company Believes They Are in Position to Know Demand For Machine.

ARE ASKED TO INVESTIGATE

A statement issued today by the Ideal Husker company says: "Every farmer should buy stock in the Ideal Corn Husker company because they are in a position to appreciate the enormous demand for this machine in the corn belt. The demand for the machine will cause your stock to increase in value and also pay big returns on your investment in a reasonable length of time. Money invested in bonds and mortgages is stationary; it never increases in value neither does it increase in earnings. With a perfect machine that will convince the farmer that it will do the work and with good management success is assured. Get busy and help to locate this factory in Rushville, by doing so you can always keep in close touch with your investment. When you are in the city call at the Rushville glove company and look at the machine."

EAGLES MEETING.

The Eagles lodge will have a called meeting tonight at eight o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral services of Ben H. Conway. A large attendance is desired.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Rushville People Know How to Save it.

Many Rushville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Rushville citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Ella Endicott, 125 S. Harrison St., Rushville, Ind., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family with good results. A member of the family suffered from severe pains through his back and had difficulty in straightening after stooping. His kidneys were also irregular in action. Finally he used Doan's Kidney Pills and they corrected the troubles."

STRANGE LAWS WE MAY BREAK

President Wilson Violated One of Them.

SOME "FREAK" ORDINANCES

Walking Across a Street Between Crossings is a Misdemeanor in Washington—Many Other Cities Have Unusual Provisions, Some Funny Ones, in Their Code Books.

President Wilson broke the law in Washington before he had been a resident of that city long enough to get acquainted with the peculiarities of its municipal code.

Of course he did not intend to do so, and what he did would not brand him as a malefactor of any degree in the average person's mind. He simply started to walk across a street between crossings and did not know until informed by a friend that he had violated one of the city's "freak" ordinances.

It seems strange that a city of magnificent distances like Washington should have an ordinance compelling the man who wants to step across the street to walk all the way to the corner in order to carry out that innocent purpose unless he has an automobile at his command to ferry him over.

Still not all cities can afford to make fun of Washington's ordinances, for where is the city without a freak ordinance on its books? It may seem difficult to match the oddity of this particular ordinance. For instance, suppose you were in the capital and saw your best friend or maybe even the congressman from your district tearing along the other side of the street. The most natural thing in the world, of course, would be for you to go over there and greet him, wouldn't it?

A New Measure.
If he happened to be walking very fast in the opposite direction you would run right across, dodging automobiles and wagons and everything else. Now, if a policeman were in sight he'd collar you before you got across, march you back the way you came and then hale you before a magistrate. For what? For attempting to cross the street when not at a corner. That is the new Washington ordinance.

Still this rugged law probably claims fewer victims than the one enforced in Wilkesbarre, Pa. If a man is caught spitting on the pavement there he is fined. Other towns have such a regulation, but Wilkesbarre actually enforces it. The police regularly arrest breakers of the ordinance. The officials of some other cities may indeed enforce the law once in awhile, but Wilkesbarre makes the custom up and earns quite a revenue thereby.

A special constable does nothing but look out for spitters. It is a poor day when a dozen traveling salesmen are not initiated to the Wilkesbarre ordinance and made to dig up fines. Miners speaking no English frequently fall, and legend has it that some prosperous miners have paid the fine many times over without ever understanding what it is for.

Council's Oversight.
Only recently the council members of a New Jersey town passed an ordinance forbidding inhabitants from shooting off revolvers when fires broke out. Whether they could shoot them at other times wasn't specified. What other means of fire alarm were suggested is not remembered.

New York is not without its legal gems of unconscious humor. It must have been a humorist who suggested this paradox of the New York ordinances:

"No person shall ride upon the back of any vehicle without the consent of the driver, and when so riding no part of the person's body must protrude beyond the limits of the vehicle."

A Mysterious Law.
Another New York ordinance is more apt to be called mysterious than just funny. It forbids persons doing pantomimes, dances or play acting in windows facing the streets and higher up than the ground floor.

Thus, while it may be perfectly proper for a shop to employ a demonstrator in its show windows on the ground floor, the same demonstrator performing at a second story window would run some danger of arrest if perceived.

As few windows above the ground floor can readily be seen from the sidewalk, it is a puzzling question what now forgotten trouble caused the passage of this ordinance.

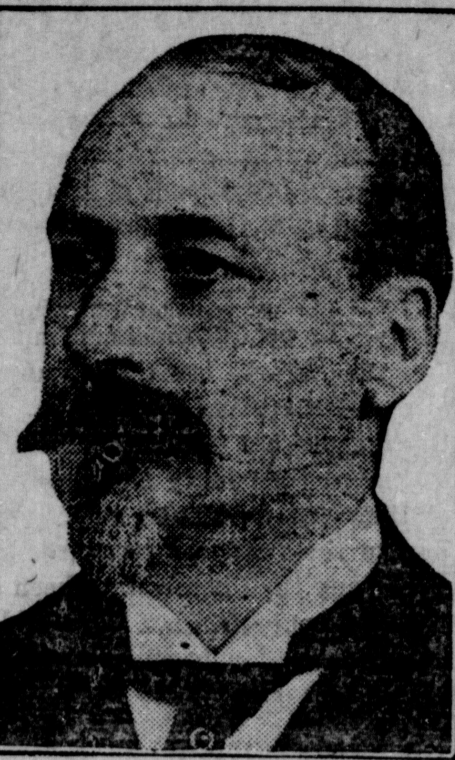

GOES HUNTING FOR ICEBERGS.

Destroyer Seneca Chases Terrors of the Seas to Blow Them Up.
The United States derelict destroyer Seneca departed from Halifax, N. S., recently on an iceberg hunting expedition. She carried gunboats with which to destroy the big masses of ice found in the paths of transatlantic steamships.

Before departing on the cruise the Seneca was informed by wireless that several big icebergs had been seen in the steamship lanes.

FRANK O. BRIGGS

Former Senator From New Jersey
Dead at His Home in Trenton.

Trenton, N. J., May 9.—Former United States Senator Frank O. Briggs died at his home in this city at 8:30 last night. For many years he had been a sufferer from Bright's disease and complications which followed that ailment were the immediate cause of death. Mr. Briggs was a son of the late Major James F. Briggs, who served three terms in congress as a representative from New Hampshire. He was born at Concord in 1831.

MR. WILSON URGES CURRENCY REFORM

Another Job Laid Out for Special Session.

Washington, May 9.—The progress made in getting the tariff bill through the house warrants the taking up of currency reform legislation at the special session of congress, President Wilson has decided. He hopes now that final action on the currency bill to be introduced in the house will be taken before the session adjourns this summer. The enactment of a currency law will terminate the administration's program for legislation at the special session.

The president conveyed this information to Representative Underwood, the majority leader, and Representative Palmer, the Democratic caucus chairman, when they called on him at the White House to ascertain his wishes with respect to the course to be pursued by the house now that the tariff bill has been disposed of and sent to the senate.

Mr. Underwood said that the house probably will recess for about three weeks. This much time will be required for the reorganization of the committees. The house will meet about June 10 to begin work on the remainder of the administrative legislative program.

The president made it known that he had expected a practical agreement would be reached between himself and Democratic leaders in both houses in time for the actual drafting of a currency bill soon after June 1. He expected that his own ideas would be clarified by that time sufficiently to permit a determination of the real situation with regard to the legislation in congress. It was learned, however, that the president does not intend that the house committee shall report the bill immediately after June 1, but that some time shall be consumed in public hearings and in widespread conferences among Democratic leaders.

INDIANA NATIONAL GUARD

Annual Encampment Will Be Held at Fort Harrison in July.

Indianapolis, May 9.—Members of the Indiana national guard are to have "tugs of war," wall-scaling, baseball contests and track meets at the annual encampment, announced by Brigadier General George W. McCoy, for the ten days between July 21 and July 30, inclusive, to be held at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Several years ago the officers of the state's militia held a field day, and the good accruing from the contests was commented on by state and federal officials. The field day has been abandoned, however, for several years, and the announcement that it was again to be a part of the state encampment brought pleasure to all the members of the guard, who received their official notices of the date of the encampment.

There will be approximately 2,000 members of the guard from every part of the state at the encampment this year, according to officials at the statehouse. All enlisted men must have had at least sixty days' service prior to the opening date of the encampment, according to the orders from the state officers. The bulletin issued by General McCoy carries the information that, "owing to the inability of the war department to furnish instructors, the infantry officers' school will not be held until September and probably not then."

The Indiana state convention of the Travelers' Protective association is in session at Lafayette.

GERM CAUSES RHEUMATISM.

Chicago Physician Says He Has Found the Bacteria.

That rheumatism is caused by a germ is the theory of Dr. Edward C. Rosenow of Rush Medical college, Chicago, who also says he has discovered the identity of the hitherto unknown bacteria.

Dr. Rosenow made known his discovery for the first time in describing his work to the staff of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute. He said he based his theories on experiments made upon rabbits, into which he had injected rheumatic germs taken from human beings.

He said he found the tonsils of several patients inflamed. When bacteria from the tonsils were injected into the rabbits the identical symptoms developed, he said.

"There is nothing to indicate that rheumatism may be transmitted through the air," said Dr. Rosenow, "and I believe the germs lurk in food and first lodge in the tonsils."

Dr. Rosenow's discoveries will be the basis of experimental work in search of a cure for rheumatism.

WILL NOT RECOGNIZE CHINA.

England is Not Ready to Follow America's Lead.

Great Britain has no intention of following the lead of the United States in recognizing the republic of China, the house of commons was informed by Mr. Francis Dyke Acland, parliamentary undersecretary for foreign affairs, speaking on behalf of the foreign office.

The British government at the time of the establishment of the present administration in China exchanged views with the governments of other powers regarding recognition, said Mr. Acland, and it was agreed that the powers should act in concert and that recognition of the republic should be conditional on the formal confirmation by the republic of the rights resulting from treaties and established usage enjoyed by British subjects. The British government, he concluded, still adheres to those views.

J. A. M. ADAIR

Indiana Congressman Puts Aside a Flattering Offer.

ADAIR DECLINES TO CONSIDER PROPOSAL

Lure of Leadership Does Not Attract Him.

Washington, May 9.—The controversy that is being waged over the reorganization of the Democratic national congressional committee has brought out Representative J. A. M. Adair of Indiana. Mr. Adair was proposed as a "happy solution" of the contest for the congressional chairmanship. It is believed that the suggestion that Adair would make a good chairman has been considered during the last few days at the White House and that he would be acceptable to President Wilson, who is taking the liveliest sort of interest in the preliminaries leading up to the battle for control of the national house of representatives next year.

Representative Adair admitted that he had been approached on the subject. "All I know about it," said he, "is that several influential members of the house called on me and asked me to take the congressional chairmanship. I informed those who broached the subject to me that I could not think of accepting, and there I suppose the matter will end."

While the Indiana representative would not discuss his reasons for refusing to stand for election as chairman, it is known his decision was based on reluctance to leave his own district in campaign time. On one thing practically all elements in the administration councils are agreed, and that is that the chairman of the committee should be a northern man, preferably from Indiana or Ohio. It is believed there would be very little if any opposition to Adair if the president should openly express a preference for him, but so far Adair's face is firmly set against the proposal.

Assistant Postmaster Imprisoned.

Indianapolis, May 9.—George W. Bartindale, assistant postmaster at Otterbein, Ind., who was charged with embezzlement, was sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary at Stillwater, Minn., by Judge Anderson. According to Postoffice Inspector McCorkle a shortage of about $500 was found in the money-order accounts and Bartindale is supposed to have used the embezzled money in "bucket shop" speculation at Lafayette. He had charge of the postoffice under his father, who is the postmaster, but is in ill health.

CABINET TAKES UP JAP ISSUE

Momentous Discussion Going On Today.

JAPANESE ARE INSISTENT

Ambassador From Land of the Mikado Has Made It Very Plain That His Government Regards the Californian Situation as a Point of Honor Which Cannot Long Remain Unsettled and Demands Immediate Attention.

Washington, May 9.—The Japanese government's objections to the California bill, the cabinet assembled at the White House to consider it. Following this, Secretary Bryan will again receive Ambassador Chinda and convey to him whatever the president and his advisers decide shall be communicated to the Japanese government at this stage of the proceedings. It is not expected, of course, that the president and cabinet will be ready today to give a final answer to the Japanese protest. They will, however, give Ambassador Chinda some indication of the trend of their deliberations.

Ambassador Chinda declines to disclose the character of the protest he has made on behalf of his government, but it is generally understood that the Japanese government considers the California bill in violation of the treaty of 1911 and also contrary to the spirit of the friendly relations hitherto existing between the United States and Japan. It also is understood that the Japanese government looks to the federal authorities of the United States to adjust the matter to the satisfaction of Japan, inasmuch as the Japanese government can have no relations with the state of California. In most polite terms Ambassador Chinda is said to have put the question: "What are you going to do about it?"

The earnestness with which the Japanese ambassador has taken up with Secretary Bryan the question of the California-Japanese situation has served to remind the administration of the seriousness of the matter. At the Japanese embassy it has been made quite clear that the Japanese government and people regard the present controversy as one concerning nothing less than their national honor, and that they intend to treat it as such. The earnestness of Chinda in seeking quick action indicates clearly that Japan herself is determined to move with speed in this matter. The ambassador's action is regarded here as indicating the determination of his government to impress upon the United States the fact that Japan regards the situation gravely and as demanding immediate attention.

DIFFERING VIEWS ON IT
Experts Do Not Agree on Value of New Tariff Measure.

Washington, May 9.—As an example of the differing views regarding the tariff bill which has just passed the house, the following expressions are given:

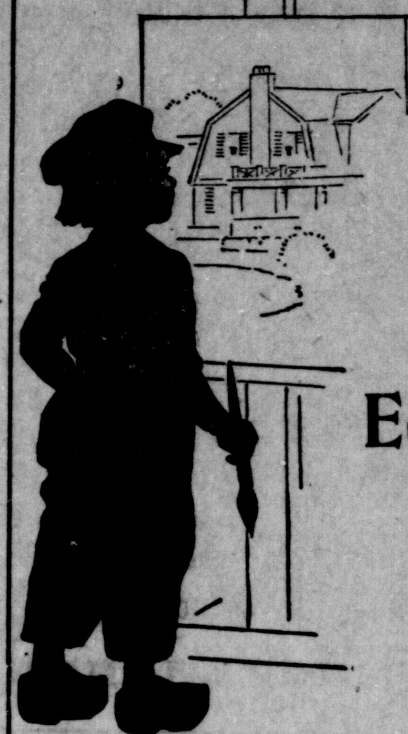

Representative Oscar W. Underwood, author of the bill: "With the new tariff bill passed the Democratic party has kept the pledges made to the people and the promises contained in the Baltimore platform. I feel confident that it will bring real relief to the American people in reducing the high cost of living and better adjustment of our business conduct under modern methods."

Sereno R. Payne, author of the present law: "A true indictment of the bill is that it aids foreign laborers by throwing open our markets and discriminates against laborers in the United States who are forced to meet unjust competition and an enormous increase of imports from foreign countries. As a menace to the present unparalleled prosperity of the country, under which the earnings of the working men provide more necessities than ever before, the bill seems to be a success."

Freight Goes Up in Smoke.
Indianapolis, May 9.—Flames which broke out in the Big Four freight depot shortly before 10 o'clock last evening practically destroyed the structure and caused a heavy loss on freight stored in the building. The fire had gained such headway when discovered that the building practically was doomed by the time the firemen reached the scene.

His Conscience Smote Him.
Hartford City, Ind., May 9.—Miss Mabel Torpey paid 2 cents postage on a package and found that it contained five gold rings recently stolen from her and sent back by a conscience-stricken thief.

WRITES ABOUT ACTIVITY HERE

George A. Ryan, Indiana Horse Authority, Reports Conditions in Racing Barns in Rushville.

HARRIE JONES' PROSPECTS

Dagler Brothers Are as Busy a Pair of Young Men as Will be Found in Indiana.

Reports from the training tracks all over the State indicate that they are mighty busy places just at the present time and will continue to be so until after racing season starts writes George A. Ryan, the noted Indiana authority on fast horses. Rushville has always been one of the "hottest" places in the Hoosier state and at Riverside park, Harrie Jones has an ideal training track, one that is a mile around. During the flood the track came pretty near being wiped out. Jones, Clall Maple and Clyde Nebro got their horses away from the track just in time. All of the barns were washed away and the track badly damaged. The latter has been repaired and Harrie has a big gang of men busily engaged in constructing a new barn that will accommodate fifty head of horses and also provide himself with a first class office. Harrie is training a big bunch of trotters and pacers, something he does every year, and among them are a number that have the earmarks of being the extreme speed kind.

College Jim is considered good material for the free-for-alls. Last year he won three out of four races and took his record of 2:06 1/4 in a winning race over the Indianapolis track. One that is slated as a veritable "beast" is the Missouri pacer, gelding, Harry the Ghost, 2:10 1/2, by Manager, 2:06 3/4. This race horse is expected to "show" the most critical. He was raced over the Western half-mile tracks ten times last year and seven times he headed the summaries. There is no question but that he is considerably faster than his record and over the mile tracks of the Great Western Circuit should take a record faster than that of his sire. He is considered a game as well as a fast performer. A trotter that is better than a 2:08 performer any time she takes it into her head to be on her good behavior is the Michigan mare Helen Wilstar, 2:12 1/4.

Harrie has had great success in getting the confidence of the wilful ones and if he does as well with her as he did with that exceedingly erratic pacer mare Alekfrass, 2:03 1/4, he will have a free-for-all trotter. Alekfrass, by the way, was burned to death recently at Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada. Harrie took this mare when she had the disposition to get away something like a distance behind her fields and made a fairly reliable racing tool of her. She won a number of good races and, after leaving his hands was sold to John Taylor of Moose Jaw and while his property won the pacing championship of Canada over a half-mile track by negotiating the Moose Jaw track last fall in 2:04 3/4. Like Helen Wilstar she was a product of Michigan.

Of the big bunch that Harrie is training, some of the other record horses include Red S., 2:11 1/4, that is counted better than a 2:06 pacer; Sweet Salome, 2:15 1/4; The Bankrupt, 2:12 1/4; Duke's Mixture, 2:13 1/4; Lucy T. V., 2:15 1/4; Sunny Jim, 2:23 1/4; Bessie Prodgal, 2:16 1/4, and Alice Prodgal, 2:20 1/4.

The Dagler Brothers at the Posey Stock Farm, are as busy a pair of young men as one will find in the state. They are short of record horses, but in the fall this will be different, for they have as promising a bunch of green ones as one could wish for and a large number of them will have good records before the snow falls. One of their aged ones is Doctor Gambetta, 2:16 1/4, that trotted to his record over a half mile track. He is full of trot this spring and nothing but an accident will keep him from entering the charmed circle this season.

Over at Cambridge City Curt Gosnell has an extra good stable. Curt each year makes a "cleaning" over the half-mile tracks of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. When he hits the tracks over in that territory he has hosts of friends who want to know how good his horses are, for he has beaten the good ones in that section of the country so often that the rank and file would rather be with him than against him when the money is down. Each year, too, several of his most likely ones graduate to the mile tracks, for Walter Cox and some of the other Eastern trainers like nothing better than swapping a few thousand for one that Curt has raced on the twice-around and declares good enough to do the Grand Circuit. Gosnell could have a stable on the big line himself each year but he seems content to rake in the plums in the territory described above and then rake down the price of a house and lot from the trainers who are envious of his stars. Then he scours around through the middle West all winter and gathers together another band of prospects for the next season.

A couple of years ago Gosnell made a clean sweep with Woodcliff King, giving him a record of 2:12 1/4, and selling him for $5,000 to Walter Cox of Dover, N. H. This fast pacer, which showed around 2:05 before changing hands, is this year entered in the C. of C. and other big stakes. This year Curt expects to have a star performer in Arlene, 2:09 1/4, by Arlington, 2:06 1/4. She has beaten 2:08 1/2 over a half-mile track and is set down to take a mark of 2:05 or better this season. Two years ago she won seven out of ten races and was second twice. Curt purchased her last March and is delighted with the way she is taking her work. F. A. L., 2:16 1/4, by Anderson Wilkes, is counted to get the money in the trotting classes and other record horses in his stable include: Halley's Comet, 2:13 1/4; Mabel W., 2:14 1/4, and Alajon, 2:15 1/4. In addition he has some richly bred green ones that have shown fast in their work that Gosnell will race in the green and slow classes. The most of them will come home with records.
